HAVE RECEIVED A

NEW MODEL CABINET ORGAN.

By means of this invention an Organ containing Two or Three sets of reads becomes equal in volume and power, and greatly superior in portions, placed so as to operate in connection through which the air (subsequently passing through, the reeds) enters, and through which the sound escapes, thus producing fullness and richness of tone together with refined and sym-

Thus trade carried on under conditions analogous to is the programme: those governing trade between two treaty ports, provision being made for drawback | Valse certificates, etc., but none of the documents issued by the Frontier Customs will be recognised by the Maritime Customs, and even Chinese produce exported by way of Tonquin to a Chinese port will be treated as transit pass system on being conveyed infi the interior. The rationale of this broad distinction between the Frontier and Maritime Customs it is not very easy to undera it is no doubt convenient to the Chinese on two between Yunnan and the Central Government and the slender control the latter has over the officials in that distant province, it would be difficult to work a combined avatem satisfactorily; and, second, because unless some such distinction were drawn the most fivoured nation clause would give other nations the right to claim at the Maritime Customs Stations the same reduction on the existing tariff as the French have secured for the land trade. Even in spite of the distinction such a claim might be urged, and it was in fact urged by the British Board of Trade in the correspondence with reference to the treaty of the 9th June, 1885. Presumably the claim has been waived, as nothing more has since been heard of it. The only argu-

The situation is not without its compensation for British interests, for, although the setting up of the distinction above noted may prevent the application of the conditions of the new treaty to the maritime trade, the most favoured nation clause of the Tientsin Treaty will give Great Britain the right to demand their application to the landward trade between Burmah and China. The pioneers of trade in that direction, therefore, will start with theadvantage of a low and welldefined tariff and a well-nigh perfect transit pass system ready for adoption. The important question remaining is whether the Yunnan Authorities will loyally carry out the engagements of the Imperial Government, or whether the transit pass eystem will not refar this system has been carried out in the

In the event of war between Russia and England, Port Lacareff places Russia in a more advantageous position for both offensive and defensive operations than during the recent Russo-Afghan crisis. London, 17th July. Interest in the Crawford divorce case has no diminished, but, on the contrary, has increased It has developed that Mrs. Crawford recently made a statement to the Queen's Proctor, the exact nature of which is not known, but it is expeoted she will be called upon to substantiate it and some new facts perhaps, of a startling character may be elicited. It is the opinion that Sir Charles makes a bad witness, failing to answer questions asked until absolutely forced to, and showing a general disposition to debate and quibble. In the court to-day Dilke was cheerful, almost frisky; Donald Crawford was sullen and heavy-eyed; Mrs. Crawford was cool and collected, breaking the tedium of the technical evidence by a series of little rawns and twirlings of the handkerchief; at the same time she consulted a miniature diary and occasionally whispered to Mr. Lewis and chatted smilingly with her sisters. The evidence of the servants tended to show that Dilke ordered the housemaids because he disliked to see them. Shant, the coach man, said he frequently drove Dilke to the house in Young street, the visits usually lasting a quarter of an hour. Once he saw Dilke and a lady through the window. cess of Wales were among the audience. The race for the Eclipse stakes at Sandown Park was won by Bendigo. The stakes were valued at 10,000 sovereigns. Candlemas was second and St. Gatien third. There were twelve starters. The accident to Minting, on the eve of the Eclipse stakes, was a sensational topic at the clubs last night. It appears that after having had a good gallop on Thursday it was discovered that Minting's near foreleg had been sprained. Sinister rumours were circulated, but the certificate of the veterinary surgeon dispelled those His certificate reads:- "I hereby certify that I have examined Minting, by request of R. Vyner, Esq. He has sprained the plexor tendon on the near foreleg and has incapacitated himself from running." Many thousand pounds were lost on the horse, which, since the 2,000 guineas and the Grand Prix, was the leading favourite.

RIOTING IN FRANCE.

Panis, 20th July. In Marseilles last evening mobs attacked the offices of the Royalist papers. The gens d'armes defended the buildings successfully, preventing on the 10th August:-For Yokohama-7,141 the rioters from carrying out their purpose of sacking the premises. The mobs then turned on the gens d'armes and a severe fight followed. The police and soldiers together overpowered the rioters and restored order. A number of rioters were arrested and many police and soldiers 1.231 packages tea, 3,299 packages merchandise, were wounded.

LONDON, 21st July. The anti-Royalist rioting at Marseilles continued yesterday and last night. The military at midnight charged the mob, capturing 200 rioters and turning them over to the custody of the police.

EMPEROR WILLIAM AT AUGSBURG. NEW YORK, 19th July. The Herald's Augsburg special says:-The Imperial train with the Kaiser and suite arrived at Augsburg at 8.30 o'clock last evening. The Emperor looked in splendid health. His face was bronzed by the sun, and his eyes were quick and penetrating. He smiled pleasantly as he raised his hat in response to the thundering cheers on all sides. There were 100,000 visitors in the town, which was gaily decorated, this being the first visit of the Emperor since he was crowned. RUSSIA AND AFGHANISTAN.

NEW YORK, 21st July. The Star's London special says:-The Standard to day has an alarmist article on the Afghan question. Russia is hotly donounced in connection with the Boundary Commission and recent events in Contral Asia. Russia is plainly warned that the policy of her Majesty's Government will be very different from that of Gladstone's Ministry with respect to the Russian project of aggrandizement in the Far East. The article, bearing as it does indications of having been in spired from high sources, has attracted much attention in diplomatic circles. This early reminder of the threatening situation of foreign politics and of the advent of the Tories to power has had a marked effect in modifying the views of Liberal Unionists previously favouring a Tory alliance.

RUSSIA DEMANDS ERZEBOUM.

NEW YORK, 23rd July. A. London-despatch-from Sophia state that the collection of war stores and arms and the drilling Hongkong and Shanghai Bank Shares-171 of troops are going on with renewed activity. Military preparation are also proceeding on the Servian side of the frontier. The situation in both countries indicates uncertainty as to the duration of peace. Reports from Montenegrin sources show that the Turkish forces in Albania are receiving reinforcements, the intention apparently being to bring the garrison up to a war footing. Russia is getting bolder and now demands the cession of Erzeroum, in Armenia, the possession of which would give her the key to the whole country south. A WOMAN'S SUFFERINGS AND GRATITUDE.

A VOICE FROM AUSTRIA.

Near the village of Zillingdorf, in Lower Austria lives Maria Hans, an intelligent and industrious woman, whose story of physical suffering and final relief, as related by herself, is of interest to English women. "I was employed, she says, "in the work of a large farmhouse. Overwork brought on sick headache, followed by a deathly fainting and sickness of the stomach until I was unable to retain either food or drink. I was compelled to take to my bed for several weeks. Getting a little better from rest and quiet, I sought to do some work, but was soon taken with a pain in my side, which in a little while seemed to spread over my whole body, and throbbed in my every limb. This was followed FOR SINGAPORE, HAVRE, AND HAMby a cough and shortness of breath, until finally I could not sew, and I took to my bed for the | (Taking Cargo at through rates to ANTWERP, Lecond, and, as I thought, for the last time. I Douglas Steamship Company, Limited $52 read it, and my dear mother bought me a bottle of Seigel's Syrup, which I took exactly according to directions, and I had not taken the whole DAYLIGHT. of it before I felt a great change for the better. My last illness began June 3rd, 1882, and continued to August 9th, when I began to take the Syrup. Very soon I could do a little work. The cough left me, and I was no more troubled in breathing. Now I am perfectly cured. And oh, how happy I am! I cannot express gratitude enough for Seigel's Sycup. New I must tell you that the doctors in our district distributed haudbills cautioning people against the medicine, telling them it would do them no good, and many were thereby influenced to destroy the Seigel pamphlets; but now, wherever one is to be found, it is kept like a relic. The few preserved are borrowed to read, and I have lent mine the 28th instant, at 2.30 P.M. for six miles around our district. People have come eighteen miles to get me to buy the medicine for them, knowing that it cared me. and to be sure to get the right kind. I know a woman who was looking like death, and who told them there was no help for her, that she had consulted several doctors, but none could help her. I told her c' Seigel's Syrup, and wrote the name down for that she might make no mistake. She take my advice and the Syrup, SINGAPORE, PENANG. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous ob- jects in machinery, photography, felegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relationshas imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the socents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast coonomy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore charac- terised Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work following facts are submitted for consideration:— Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charac- ters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely re- quires examples to display the various appli- cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relationshas imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti promunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work following facts are submitted for consideration:—Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinsse characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other clementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications and equivalents of different works which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictiona	BOARD OF DIBECTORS. LUM SIN SANG, Esq. BAN HUP, Esq. YOWCHONG PENG, Esq. CHAR LI CHOY, Esq. Q. HOI CHUNE, Esq. IN GLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDAEIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office. Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical services this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous ob- jects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in excluse. Each and every word is fully illustrated and caplained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being curefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast conomy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those wast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore charac- terised Chinese publications. To the illustrate the wast scope of the work following facts are submitted for consideration:— Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charac- ters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely re- quires examples to display the various appli- cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning.
